TECHNICAL PRESENTATION INFORMATION

Date: Wednesday, May 9, 2018

Location: India House
1 Hanover Square
New York, NY 10004

Topic: Engineering Ethics Clashes and Crashes

Presenter: Hendrik "Rik" van Hemmen, President, Martin & Ottaway, Inc.

Rik van Hemmen is the President of Martin & Ottaway, Inc. The firm is well known for providing technical, operational, and financial consulting services the maritime industry at large. Rik has a degree in Aerospace and Ocean Engineering, is a licensed Professional Engineer, a SNAME Fellow, and a Diplomate in Forensic Engineering. After being employed in defense contracting, classification, and yacht design, he has worked for Martin & Ottaway since 1988. Not uncommonly, his work with Martin & Ottaway involves decision making that relies on proper application of engineering ethics.

Abstract: Both licensed engineers and marine professionals function under a code of ethics. While it may not occur often, just about every engineer will occasionally encounter ethics challenges and proper conduct under those challenges can mean the difference between professional respect and career suicide. This presentation discusses the various applicable codes and provides examples of situations where the use and application of the code can assist engineers in doing the right thing.

This presentation is expected to be accredited for 1 PDH. Please contact SNAME's Professional Engineer Continuing Education Program Evaluator, Professor Alan Rowen (alanrowen@gmail.com), for more details.
